EXECUTIVE ORDER

PREScribing REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE EXPORTATION OF ARTICLES AND MATERIALS DESIGNATED IN PROCLAMATIONS ISSUED PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 6 OF THE ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED JULY 2, 1940

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 6 of the act of Congress approved July 2, 1940, entitled "An Act to expedite the strengthening of the national defense" (54 Stat. 712, 714), I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing the exportation of articles and materials designated in proclamations issued, or which may hereafter be issued, pursuant to the said section 6; except that these regulations shall not apply to the articles and materials designated in Proclamation No. 2465 of March 4, 1941, or proclamations amendatory thereof:

1. The Administrator of Export Control shall, under my direction, determine the forms, conversions, and derivatives of the articles and materials the exportation of which has been prohibited or curtailed pursuant to section 6 of the act of July 2, 1940; and the Administrator may from time to time make such additions to or deletions from the lists of forms, conversions, and derivatives as may be necessary in the interest of national defense.

2. The Administrator of Export Control shall cause such lists of forms, conversions, and derivatives to be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Such publication shall constitute notice to the public that, after the effective date therein stated, none of the forms, conversions, and derivatives listed shall be exported unless and until a license authorizing such exportation shall have been issued by the Secretary of State.

3. The forms for application for export licenses shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State: Provided, That such applications shall be required to contain adequate descriptions of the articles and materials to be exported, including type and model descriptions, if applicable.

4. The Secretary of State shall issue export licenses to authorize proposed shipments of the said articles and materials, and forms, conversions, and derivatives thereof, to applicants who shall have made application on the prescribed form, unless the Administrator of Export Control, under my direction, shall have determined that the proposed exportation would be detrimental to the interests of the national defense.

5. Regulations contained in the document entitled International Traffic in Arms (7th ed., 1939), Department of State publication 1407, shall continue to govern the exportation of arms, ammunition, and implements of war, and tin-plate scrap, except that export licenses shall not be issued when in any case it shall have been determined by the Administrator of Export Control, under my direction, that the proposed shipment would be contrary to the interest of the national defense.

6. The country designated on the application for license as the country of destination shall in each case be the country of ultimate destination. If the goods to be exported are consigned to one country with the knowledge that they are intended for transshipment thence to another country, the latter country shall be named as the country of destination.

7. Export licenses are not transferable and are subject to revocation without notice. If not revoked, licenses are valid for one year from the date of issuance.

8. The original license must be presented, prior to exportation, to the collector of customs at the port through which the shipment authorized to be exported is being made. If shipment is made by parcel post, the license must be presented to the postmaster at the post office at which the parcel is mailed.

9. No alterations may be made in export licenses which have been issued by the Secretary of State except by the Department of State or by collectors of customs or postmasters acting under the specific instructions of the Department of State.

Rules, Regulations, Orders

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

CHAPTER I—BUREAU OF INTERNAL REVENUE

[T. D. 5043]

PART 30—REGULATIONS UNDER EXCESS PROFITS TAX ACT OF 1940

ALLOWANCE OF EXCESS PROFITS CREDIT AND INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN RETURNS FILED UNDER THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX ACT OF 1940, AS AMENDED BY THE EXCESS PROFITS TAX AMENDMENTS OF 1941

By reason of the enactment of the Excess Profits Tax Amendments of 1941 (Public Law 10, 77th Cong.), approved March 7, 1941, the following regulations are hereby prescribed:

§ 30.1 Excess profits credit; allowance. (a) The Excess Profits Tax Act of 1940 provides two methods for computing the excess profits credit: First, the income method under which the credit is computed as provided in section 713, and second, the invested capital method under which the credit is computed as provided in section 714. The Excess Profits Tax Amendments of 1941 provides that, in the case of the following corporations, the excess profits credit for any taxable year shall be the credit based upon income, computed as provided in section 713, or the credit based upon invested capital, computed as provided in section 714, whichever credit results in the lesser tax for the taxable year for which the tax is being computed:

(1) A domestic corporation which was actually in existence before January 1, 1940.

(2) A domestic corporation which is an "acquiring corporation" within the meaning of section 740 of Supplement A and which was constructively in existence at the beginning of its base period.

(3) A foreign corporation (i) which is engaged in trade or business within the United States, or has an office or place of business therein, at any time during the taxable year; (ii) the first taxable year of which for the purposes of the excess profits tax begins on any date in 1940; (iii) which was in existence on the day 48 months prior to such date; and (iv) which at any time during each of the taxable years in such 48 months, was engaged in trade or business within the United States, or had an office or place of business therein. As to what constitutes being engaged in trade or business within the United States, see § 19.231-1 of Regulations 103.<sup>1</sup>

(b) If a taxpayer disclaims in its return for a particular taxable year the use of either credit, the credit so disclaimed shall not, for the purposes of the internal revenue laws, be applicable to the computation of the tax for the taxable year with respect to which the disclaimer is made.

(c) A domestic corporation which was not actually in existence before January 1, 1940, and which was not constructively in existence on the date of the beginning of its base period, and a foreign corporation which does not meet the requirements of (a) (3) above, are required to compute their credit under the invested capital method provided in section 714. (Sec. 62, 53 Stat. 32, 26 U.S.C., Sup., 62; sec. 13, 14, 15, Excess Profits Tax Amendments of 1941, Public Law 10, 77th Cong.)

§ 30.2 Average base period net income of acquiring corporation. (a) Section 742 of the Excess Profits Tax Act of 1940 provides rules for the computation of the average base period net income in the case of certain corporations which are "acquiring corporations" within the meaning of section 740. The Excess Profits Tax Amendments of 1941 provides that every acquiring corporation which was itself actually in existence before January 1, 1940 shall have an election to compute its average base period net income under either of the two following methods:

(1) The average base period net income computed under section 713 solely with reference to the taxpayer's own base period experience, without reference to the base period experience of any of the taxpayer's component corporations; or

(2) The average base period net income computed under section 742 with reference to the base period experience of the taxpayer and each qualified component corporation.

(b) The election shall be made in the excess profits tax return for the particular taxable year. An election once made is irrevocable for a particular taxable year, but a new election is granted for each succeeding taxable year. An acquiring corporation which was merely constructively in existence before January 1, 1940, by reason of the provisions of section 740, is required, in every case, to compute its average base period net income under section 742. (Sec. 62, 53 Stat. 32, 26 U.S.C., Sup. 62; Sec. 15,

Excess Profits Tax Amendments of 1941, Public Law 10, 77th Cong.)

§ 30.3 Information required in returns. Any taxpayer which is entitled to have its excess profits credit computed under section 713 or section 714, whichever credit results in the lesser excess profits tax, is required, even though it has filed old Form 1121, to file a return on Form 1121 (Revised March 1941), and such return shall (unless the taxpayer states therein that it disclaims the use of one of the credits) contain computations of the credits computed under section 713 and section 714 and the excess profits net income computed with the credit under section 713 and the excess profits net income computed with the credit under section 714, and shall contain all the information required by such revised form and by these regulations with respect to such computations. A taxpayer stating in its return that it disclaims the use of one of the credits in the computation of the excess profits tax for the taxable year may omit from the return the computation and information based upon such disclaimed credit. (Sec. 62, 53 Stat. 32, 26 U.S.C., Sup., 62; sec. 16, Excess Profits Tax Amendments of 1941, Public Law 10, 77th Cong.)

§ 30.4 Modification of prior regulations. Regulations 109 (Part 30, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Sup.)<sup>2</sup> are hereby modified to the extent that they may be inconsistent with these regulations. (Sec. 62, 53 Stat. 32, 26 U.S.C., Sup., 62; sec. 13, 14, 15, 16, Excess Profits Tax Amendments of 1941, Public Law 10, 77th Cong.)

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.
